EmailMerge Pro For Outlook Crack For PC (Final 2022)

EmailMerge Pro for Outlook is an intuitive add-in for your email client, that enables you to send out multiple personalized messages to recipients from your contact list. You can create several templates, insert images, logos or headers, for holiday cards, newsletters or batch emails. The add-in can automatically fill in the email addresses before sending them out. The EmailMerge Wizard EmailMerge Pro for Outlook features a comprehensive wizard editor that enables you to not only design the email templates, but also customize the message you wish to send and certain rules. Thus, you may select the contact books that you wish to send the emails to, the recipients and exceptions. You may save the current contact selection, in case you wish to send another batch of emails to the same recipients. You may create contact categories, in order to include only those names you wish to send a particular type of message. For instance, you may set the 'Marketing' list, where you can include all the recipients that have requested marketing updates, and exclude those who do not wish to receive such messages. Additionally, you may set rules, such as replace a certain name with custom text or automatically fill an empty field. Also, you may choose which sender address to use in order to email the current batch of messages. Easily create email templates Before prompting you to choose the sender address, the wizard enables you to preview the content of your email and edit it if you consider it necessary. You can open an email window and customize the text, images, headers, footers, signatures,

Flash content or other items. The add-in features a collection of templates, that you can edit at any time, but you may also create your own, personalized newsletters, holiday cards, marketing campaigns or other models.
