Super. 168 (1981) 432 A.2d 595 AURORA COMPANY, INC., A NEW JERSEY CORPORATION, PLAINTIFF-APPELLANT, v. GILBERT J. MORREALE, DEFENDANT-RESPONDENT. Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division. Submitted June 8, 1981. Decided June 19, 1981. *170 Before Judges FRITZ, ARD and TRAUTWEIN. *171 Melito & Melito, attorneys for appellant (David J. Forman, on the brief), Milton J. Hollander, attorney for respondent (Hollander & Papp, attorneys). PER CURIAM. Plaintiff appeals from a judgment of the trial court dismissing its complaint with prejudice, on the ground that it had no claim against defendant, based on a contention that he orally guaranteed its financial condition by agreeing to purchase equipment for it from one Craig Conklin, who allegedly did not perform his part of the contract. Plaintiff was an operating company engaged in the business of selling air handling and heating systems. Defendant was its vice president and a director of its board of directors, as well as its president. On January 30, 1978 plaintiff and defendant orally agreed that if Conklin, who was at that time a prospective customer of plaintiff, would buy the equipment from plaintiff, Conklin would be guaranteed by defendant to pay for the equipment. The purchase order sent to Conklin on plaintiff's letterhead states: This is to confirm our agreement that if you are the successful purchaser of our plant which is located at 472 Twp. Mainline, Maplewood, N.J. with the understanding that the buyer shall also pay the balance of approximately $48,000 on the deferred purchase price and provide us with a letter of credit, in lieu of a cash deposit, in the amount of $14,000, that you will give the Aurora Company a written guarantee that you will purchase $14,000 worth of air conditioning equipment from Aurora Company, Inc. *172 Conklin was never called upon to perform his part of the agreement. In May 1978 plaintiff was still in the operation of its business. In July it

But none of it has proven to be an issue in Sunday's season-ending win over the New York Jets, who have been devastated by injuries to their offensive line and are expected to have rookie left tackle Shon Coleman on the sidelines with a knee injury. But with Wood out until at least next week and Glenn expected to miss at least two weeks, the Bills feel the absence of Wood -- the third-year veteran and locker room leader -- won't be as much of a problem as it would have been had he not been pulled from Sunday's contest. "I'm fine, I'm good," Wood said Thursday after the game. "It's just that I have a concussion. That's the bottom line. I've got a concussion. So it's tough." Wood did not return to the field after getting hit in the head on a rush attempt. The Bills will also be without starting right tackle Seanterl Henderson, who underwent surgery to repair a broken hand he suffered on the opening series of Sunday's game. Henderson is expected to be sidelined for at least two weeks. Buffalo's offensive line has been hit hard by injuries this year. Center Eric Wood didn't return to Sunday's game after a hit to the head, and left tackle Cordy Glenn will be out at least two weeks with a broken hand. AP Photo/Frank Franklin II Right guard John Miller was placed on injured reserve this week with a toe injury that has caused swelling in his big toe and isn't expected to be ready to return to the field before the offseason. "We don't feel like we're in a spot where we have to change much," Bills coach Doug Marrone said Thursday. "Eric Wood is out, so there will be a difference there
