FIFA 22 introduces Hybrid Player Scouting, which incorporates live scouting data from Tacticool's Player Simulation Live (PSL), an in-engine tool used to evaluate and analyze a player's performance in real time. It is the result of a collaboration with Tacticool, a world leader in football scouting and technology. Two scouting modes are now available at the following FIFA Ultimate Team tabs: Player & Friend Search and Instant Match. A major new addition in FIFA 22 is the Arsenal Collective, a collection of over 250 fans to get players and fans to support the English club. FIFA 22 introduces three new Accessory categories. Players now can choose from player appearances, player kit, and player head gear. Gear is introduced to FIFA for the first time. Players can now purchase their gear in-game by spending the limited-time currency available in our free-to-play game. More information on Gear will be released in the coming weeks. Here are the new features introduced in FIFA 22:

Fifa 22 Features Key:

- Gameplay and AI improvements;
- The return of the off-the-ball intelligence and the 100+ years of on-the-ball intelligence. This new off-the-ball intelligence condenses a player's awareness of their teammates into one simple element - Vision. All actions taken by teammates will be included in this new single 'Vision' element, allowing you to react to teammates more dynamically within a game.
- The return of the animations, traits and behaviours of each player;
- Ability for every player to shine;
- Level the playing field, with selected gameplay attributes tailored specifically to lower level team performance;
- Defender locks will help prevent double teaming;
- Sliding tackles and defensive pushes up the field.
- Coach Managers;
- The "dynamic scouting mode" is here for the true Master Scout with the ability to create a game-day starting XI for your real-life team by using it's internally generated statistical model to decide which player to replace.

What's new in Fifa 22:

- FIFA 22 makes FIFA Football more accessible to a wider audience with a wide range of new controls available in both the UEFA Pro evolution and UEFA Am ever, including improved dribbling, headers and ball physics.

- The ball physics are enhanced in FIFA 22 with a focus on smoother touches. Thanks to the underlying physics system, players can now ‘pounce’ on the ball with a heavier, more realistic and modern sense of joy.
 - The beautifully animated and expressive Smart Human Knee system brings an unprecedented level of intelligent AI to the animation of knee animations and their interaction with the ball and feet. This AI-driven animation system feels more intuitive, informed by over 20 years of machine learning research and development, and is more precise, more natural and more physiological than ever before.
 - The visual quality of the pitch is improved in FIFA 22 and players can now run at full tilt on grass so no more of the snapping issues experienced in FIFA 21.
 - Matchday Atmospheres pack, which will be available on day one, introduces artists and audio to add to the game’s crowd, fans and stadium atmosphere.
 - An on-pitch Player Creator allows Pro customers to create customised, unique and authentic Player models, which can then be imported into live game for use in Player Career and FUT Mode.
 - Pro Evolution players can now set their own personal commentary voice over for their online and offline players.
 - Player cards for the 100 best players in the world have been improved, featuring personalised views of their career and summary information allowing fans to see details that matter more than ever before.
 - Pro Evolution customers will be available over PlayStation 4 and Xbox One digital stores on November 4th and over PlayStation 3 and Xbox 360 on November 15.
 - FIFA 22 on Xbox 360 and Xbox One brings new features, improved visuals and more to the interface.
