And the background was really distracting. Well, I was supposed to do another project. And it actually turned out really good. And I decided to share it. I used "popcorn" paper with my Wishes sentiment on it. I cut the paper and the sentiment out of a bright red cardstock. I added buttons, border punch and some more embossing. I used my sanded effect for a bit of interest. Then I punched out a blue flower. I attached it to a red satin ribbon which was wrapped around the lid. I added a clear rhinestone for the little blue dot and two blue enamel dots as well. I hope you'll like my projects! Welcome to the FRUGALREVVIES challenge blog. I'm still a bit of a newbie but I'm not scared to come out into the world and explore more with the NHA. What was the most exciting moment of the semester for you? I would have to say hands down it was going to Atlanta for conference. I did not know what to expect with all the changes that were about to take place. The I-285 was going to be full of cars and people and the conference center wasn't finished. I got to walk around and tour all the different things we had and it was so amazing. It was very exciting and a lot of fun to just hang out there and meet the other members. That was the most fun moment because it's like you're showing your city to someone and you get to explain it to them. What are you most looking forward to doing next semester? I'm going to be learning a ton and I know I'm going to love the program. Once again I can say that I'm very very happy to be a part of this program. When you're not a student, what do you like to do in your spare time? I like
