MerFight is a 2.5D fighting game inspired by the colorful sea life of the Arctic. Inspired by the unique and fast-paced gameplay of anime, MerFight has a more lenient input system compared to other fighters that provides players with less of a learning curve. To simplify gameplay, the game offers a Pop-cancel mechanic that can be used in any action that would normally interrupt a combo. It's also important to note that MerFight's input leniency does not provide players the same level of power that they would have with a more traditional fighter. Players should master a large portion of the game before looking to use Pop-cancels. The goal is to make MerFight a casual fighting game, keeping the input leniency for new and returning players. MerFight is supported on Steam, itch.io, and other platforms.SUPER SPECIAL: With the new Super Special, players will be able to perform powerful and unique attacks with the tap of just one button. Utilizing the input leniency of Pop-cancels, players can learn to safely master the super specials as well. Current Input Examples (listed Alphabetically): "-" (Strong Smash) "N" (Neutral Smash) "L" (Light Smash) "R" (Right Punch) "LP" (Light Punch) "LL" (Light Hitbox Smash) "RL" (Right Hitbox Smash) "SP"

What's new in Scientific Shutdown:

Hi everybody! It is I, the Expected Waifu of Mr.Ax. We've really been lucky in this store that in summer, I don't have to go to Tokyo. Ha ha. The weather's pretty nice and they usually have nice sunlight and stuff, so of course I'm excited, I wanna say Hi to everybody! Here's a little preview of some shopping we did at ComiPo! ComiPo! Summer Unifrom ~Now ComiPo!'s summer uniform is crocheted, and it really suits me. It's the perfect match since I had a long neck and big head. As a result, some of my low cut dresses probably won't fit. That's just a seasonal problem. If I'm wearing anything with a low neckline, I may be able to buy one with a high neckline later. But I have to admit, I'm not quite fond of how the uniform looks on me. I dunno if that's natural or if I have to do something to make it look better. Oh well, what can you do? Anyway, here's a pic of the uniform in action! ComiPo! Sportswear ~This is all about Shishi. Me and Kanya are sooooo in love with this character. She is a cute Shishi that isn't as shikishi as the others but she's still cute! We've already seen her in the "My Mom Uses Machiris Umon" ComiPo! vol.1 teaser. I kinda wanted to add a "I cute you" in it ^^; If you've seen a commercial of this character, then you know about her!!! She cuter and I thought I have to draw her and have her in my art store before she stops being cute! I need to collect her! This is the only time I order this character from Japan. I have to order more!! It's so cute, even if it is just the sock for me! Trust me~!! Okay, I think I'll just have to acquire her by financially harming my family. ComiPo! Bubble Hair ~The cat ears look good next to the collar. I think it looks good, but I'm still not sure about it. ^^;; I don't usually search for female cotton socks! But, if you've read my profile, you can tell I have a thing for cat-eared things, so I just had to
